New director to lead Behavioral Health Department

Published August 11, 2016 | By County of San Bernardino

The Board of Supervisors on Tuesday appointed Assistant Behavioral Health Director Veronica Kelley to serve as department director effective Oct. 15, the same date current Director CaSonya Thomas begins her new board-appointed position as assistant executive officer in charge of Human Services.

Kelley, a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, began her career with County Behavioral Health in 2009 as the department's cultural competency officer, managing the Office of Cultural Competence and Ethnic Services, the Office of Prevention and Early Intervention and the Office of Innovation. She was deputy director over Regional Operations and Alcohol & Drug Services, and in 2013, became assistant director for the department.

"Veronica is a highly qualified professional who has the board's full faith and confidence," said Board of Supervisors Chairman James Ramos. "Her appointment demonstrates that the county's pool of executive talent is strong and deep. It also demonstrates the board's commitment to community health, well-being, and public safety."

"It is with great excitement that I accept the position of director of Behavioral Health," said Kelley. "In my position as assistant director, our mission of wellness, recovery and resilience is brought to life by the actions of our staff each and every day as they serve clients, fellow departments, community partners and the community at large. As director, I will continue our focus on this mission and provide high-quality behavioral health services through collaborative efforts, partnerships and transparency. I am proud and honored by the continued opportunity to serve."

“Throughout her career with the department, Veronica’s expertise and proficiency has greatly contributed to DBH’s mission of providing accessible and effective behavioral health services, supporting the countywide vision of creating a county in which those who reside and invest can prosper and achieve well-being,” said current Director Thomas. “I support her appointment by the Board of Supervisors and have the utmost confidence in her ability to lead the department and the valuable services it provides to the community.”

Kelley earned a master’s degree in Social Work (MSW) from the University of Southern California and a bachelor’s degree in Psychology and Child Development from Mount Saint Mary’s University. She is also a member of the Governing Board for the County Behavioral Health Directors Association of California serving as the Co-Chair for the Substance Abuse Prevention & Treatment Committee. Kelley is also a professor at Mount Saint Mary’s, teaching in the undergraduate Social Work/Sociology/Gerontology and Film Department and as an adjunct faculty member in the MSW Program at the Loma Linda University Department of Social Work and Social Ecology.

My name is James Martin Driskill. As of right this timestamping moment I have had no other choice but to address the continued dismissal and silence response from the community in regards to a very imperative need I have to return upright all of my doctor provider healthcare interfaces and I have to highly question the motives of the doctors involved that have placed me stage by stage into a zone that the medical professionals cannot have an open and honest discussion with me. No, instead of that discussion, which is all that I have been asking for these many years, all doctors, social services agency interfaces are unjustly terminated and ripped away from me. In all that I represent to the world in a story that is hard to fathom can happen, has collapsed not due to my fault, but the faults of bad actors that cannot maintain their honesty and integrity onto my medical and social services provided.

About standards as it relates to terms within this story details provided. I will not discontinue my use of standard to compromise what I know is your unjust need to block and ignore these circumstances because of a hidden agenda motives you hold — and for all intensive purposes — YOU MUST RESPOND and HOLD ANB OPEN AND HONEST DISCUSSION WITH ME — You cannot just ignore this to a silence oblivion.

I really am DESERVING of a FULL AND COMPLETE COMMUNITY WIDE APOLOGY for the TORMENT and DISHONORED PRACTICES of the associated persons that have acted against me extremely unprofessional in these regards.

“about standards”:

On the largest popular and most recognized professional’s social media networking site of “Linkedin”, actual “in operation” company name profiles].contain the word “fuck” in them. This to be a part of their actual “operating” business license, not just a dba.

Such examples include [but not limited to], “Fuck Cancer” at [<https://www.linkedin.com/company/fuck-cancer/about/>], “Fuck Yeah Astrophysics” at: [<https://www.linkedin.com/company/fuck-yeah-astrophysics-/about/>], “Fuck Rasism” at: [<https://www.linkedin.com/company/fuck-rasism/about/>],and “Fucked Up Design” at [<https://www.linkedin.com/company/fucked-up-design/about/>].

Furthermore, each of these cited examples of companies above each having similarly existing web presence internet domains accessible matching their namesake, [of course]. Such as “<http://FuckCancer.org>” and “<http://FuckYeahAstrophysics.com>, a non-profit example, and a .com example.

With that standard established on that professional’s site on LinkedIn is the most recognized, that takes this standard to then apply to the entire web across the globe.

As is shown in this standard, “Fucked Up [object]” is a valid naming use assigned on LinkedIn, the presence of the internet domain I hold is within the usage sharing of this standard. You must accept that <http://fuckeduphuman.net> represents a valid construct to the expression of messages that are directed into your view. You must!

NEXT, we must apply “The Science of Swearing” to this mix.

Worried About Swearing Too Much? Science Says You Shouldn’t Be

People who swear like a sailor are more honest and more intelligent, studies show.

Well, damn. Maybe you stubbed your toe first thing in the morning. Or some thoughtless commuter forced you to slam the brakes on the drive to work. Perhaps you’re just fed up with it all and feel like sinking to your knees and cursing the heavens.

If you’ve ever suppressed the urge to unleash a string of obscenities, maybe think again. Some research suggests that it might be a better idea to simply let the filth fly.

Scientifically speaking, a penchant for profanity doesn’t seem to be such a bad thing. Studies have shown that swearing relieves stress, dulls the sensation of pain, fosters camaraderie among peers and is linked with traits like verbal fluency, openness and honesty.

And the effects of cursing are physical as well as mental. A 2018 study in Psychology of Sport and Exercise found that letting out a few choice words during a workout can actually make you stronger. In the study, participants who cursed aloud while gripping a hand vise were able to squeeze harder and longer.

Timothy Jay, professor emeritus of psychology at the Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts, thinks that humans partly developed taboo language as an emotional release valve.

“There’s a point where it’s just more efficient to say, ‘F*&^ you,’ than it is to hit somebody,” adds Jay, a world-renowned expert in cursing. “We’ve evolved this very efficient way to vent our emotions and convey them to others.”

Although there has not ben any kind of OFFICIAL FINDINGS / STUDY RESULTS UNTIL RECENTLY [APRIL 6th 2020] onto the circumstances that I have described to all of my interfaces, that really is not excuse for these professional interfaces of discourse and dialogue to completely dismiss me and the story to which I have been attempting to find a resolve and remedy for for many years now. FRANKLY, there is no excuse for the behaviors that I have received.

As of April 6th 2020, there is an NIH.GOV Research Findings Published Document on the subjects of #GangStalking. In that, all through my attempts to be able to discuss these matters with the local interfaces of HIV Doctor Provider Care, HIV/AIDS Ryan White Care Act Funded Social Services, and into my Mental Health Interfaces with COUNTY RESOURCES, I describe to all of these persons that I have been a victim of hate that surfaces to conduct a targeted campaign of hate, retailing, and harassment directed into my life from community source involvements.

I am a Targeted Inividual of #Gangstalking that has been ongoing and never released from me for going on 15 years. This problem travels with my region to region. This problem is a criminal concerns matter, but frankly the police/law enforcement are also just as guilty at dismissing my attempts to have dialog of rational considerations over their quite disturbing misdirected agendas to keep my story from being told.

THIS DOCUMENT IS MANDITORY — REQUIRED ACCEPTANCE — TO PLACE INTO CIVIL SOCIETY FOCUS AND INTERPRETATIONS TO FIND SOLUTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS TO #STOPGANGSTALKING.

I have a question. I am not sure who to direct my question to. Is domestic violence classified as a behavioral health issue?

SUMMARY:

Section 241 of Title 18 is the civil rights conspiracy statute. Section 241 makes it unlawful for two or more persons to agree together to injure, threaten, or intimidate a person in any state, territory or district in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him/her by the Constitution or the laws of the United States, (or because of his/her having exercised the same). Unlike most conspiracy statutes, Section 241 does not require that one of the conspirators commit an overt act prior to the conspiracy becoming a crime.

The offense is punishable by a range of imprisonment up to a life term or the death penalty, depending upon the circumstances of the crime, and the resulting injury, if any.

TITLE 18, U.S.C., SECTION 241

If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same;...

They shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, they shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.

THE UNITED STATES
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
PRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER COLOR OF LAW

SUMMARY:

- Section 242 of Title 18 makes it a crime for a person acting under color of any law to willfully deprive a person of a right or privilege protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States.

For the purpose of Section 242, acts under "color of law" include acts not only done by federal, state, or local officials within their lawful authority, but also acts done beyond the bounds of that official's lawful authority, if the acts are done while the official is purporting to or pretending to act in the performance of his/her official duties. Persons acting under color of law within the meaning of this statute include police officers, prisons guards and other law enforcement officials, as well as judges, care providers in public health facilities, and others who are acting as public officials. It is not necessary that the crime be motivated by animus toward the race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin of the victim.

The offense is punishable by a range of imprisonment up to a life term, or the death penalty, depending upon the circumstances of the crime, and the resulting injury, if any.

TITLE 18, U.S.C., SECTION 242

Whoever, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom, willfully subjects any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States, ... shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than one year, or both; and if bodily injury results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include the use, attempted use, or threatened use of a dangerous weapon, explosives, or fire, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, shall be fined under this title, or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.
